

Dr Grace Kelly, Specialist Clinical Psychologist

Curriculum Vitae

Relevant Work History:

October 2023- Present: Specialist Clinical Psychologist, BHSCT Perinatal Mental Health Team

November 2021-September 2023: Clinical Psychologist, Beechcroft Regional CAMHS Unit

Trainee Clinical Psychologist

April 2021- September 2021	PSNI
October 2020- March 2021	Looked After Children TSS, BHSCT
April 2020- September 2020	Community Paediatrics SEHSCT
October 2019- March 2020	Learning Disability NHSC
December 2018-September 2019	Acute Adult Inpatient (Holywell)

Education:

Doctorate in Clinical Psychology (QUB)	2018-2021
MA in Applied Psychology (UCC)	2015-2016
Diploma in Forensic Psychology (DBS)	2014-2015
BA (Hons) Applied Psychology (UCC)	2011-2014

Additional Training:

Post-graduate Perinatal Clinical Psychology Training (University of Liverpool, 2024-2025), EMDR, Schema Therapy, Compassion Focused Therapy, Acceptance & Commitment Therapy, Psychometrics.

QUB Involvement:

Placement supervisor, Perinatal Special Interest Group Representative for placement panel, Teaching on Nursing & Midwifery Postgraduate Programme

Professional Registration:

Health & Care Professions Council: PYL040190

Postgraduate Publications:

Cleary, E., Curran, D., Kelly, G., Dorahy, M. J., & Hanna, D. (2023). The meta-analytic relationship between secondary traumatic stress and vicarious posttraumatic growth in adults. Traumatology, 29(1), 36–45. <https://doi.org/10.1037/trm0000373>